

Online

CHRISTIAN – BUDDHIST RETREAT

Free participation for Q & A period!

with Father Hunt OCSO Roshi and José Ramírez JDPSN

Date

Sat, 8. January 2022

Time

US (EST): 09:00-13:00

Europe (CET): 15:00-19:00

Schedule

Welcome

Introduction

4 x 30' sitting

Koan interviews with F.Hunt Roshi & J.Ramírez PSN

Chanting

Kwan Seum Bosal & Gregorian Chant

Questions & Answers

starting at 11:40 (EST)/ 17:40 (CET)

Retreat Fees

€ 40,- Non-Members

€ 30,- Members, Seniors, and Full-time Students and

Free for the Q & A period

Registration

info@kwanumzen.at

Limited participants for the retreat (15)!

Unlimited for the Q & A period

Hosted

in co-operation with

the Providence Zen Center and the Vienna Zen Center

Father Hunt Roshi

Father Kevin Jiun Hunt OCSO Roshi is certified as teacher of zen in 2005 by Roshi Robert Jinsgen Kennedy, student of Bernard Tetsugen Glassman and Maezumi Roshi (White Plum Sangha) Father Hunt is a Trappist Monk at Spencer Abbey for over fifty years. In 2004, after thirty years of Zen meditation and training, he was installed as a Zen sensei (teacher), making him the first North American Trappist to be both Catholic monk and authorized Zen instructor.

José Ramírez JDPSN

Co-Guiding Teacher of the of the Providence Zen Center, and the Guiding Teacher of the Delaware Valley Zen Center, which he helped found in the Spring of 1999. He has been practicing in the Kwan Um School of Zen since 1994, received Inka in April 2009, and leads both Zen and Christian-Buddhist retreats. He has a degree in mathematics from the Universidad Simón Bolívar in Caracas, Venezuela, and a Masters and Ph.D in statistics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. In his role as an industrial statistician he works closely with engineers and scientists to help them make sense of data. He lives in Providence, Rhode Island with his wife and daughter.